There is Neither

While at Pepperdine University, I became friends with Duke Runnels. Duke's family knew a lady who was a BIG contributor to Pepperdine. She gave a massive amount of money to the university. Duke used to receive tickets to various sporting events from this lady. Duke took me and a couple of others to the opening football game at USC, which was just up the freeway from us. We had 50- yard-line seats that were the envy of everyone in the stadium.

Duke also received some box seat tickets to the LA Tennis Club. There was a tournament at the club with some very big names. Several Hollywood celebrities were there as well. I think there were five of us that went. We all wore blue jeans and T-shirts. As soon as we sat down, I could tell that the folks in the other box seats around us looked concerned. One of them called the security guard over to check us out. The guard demanded to see our tickets and examined them quite carefully. He then turned to the individual who called him over and shrugged his shoulders to indicate that we indeed possessed the correct tickets. Our little group didn't fit in with the normal crowd who possessed box seat tickets. There are so many places that have an exclusive attitude about who gets in and who doesn't.

Paul writes in Galatians 3:28, "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free man, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus." All people who live on this earth are created in the "image" of God (Genesis 1:26-27). It is a shame that our country tried to exclude freed slaves from the privileges of our government. It is also a shame that most churches excluded blacks from membership in their churches. Paul tells us that no one is to be excluded from the church. I'm glad that we are a welcoming church. May all the nations of the earth always find friendly faces here.
