Thank you for 18 years

I want to say thank you for the 18-year celebration last Sunday evening. I appreciate all of you acknowledging my tenure here at Mount Dora. I admit that Florida wasn't the first state on my list of places to move when we were looking for a congregation back in 2006 (too far from our grandchildren!). But God made it plain to us that Mount Dora was where He wanted us.

From the beginning I felt at home here. The weather and slower pace took a little bit of adjusting after 27 years in New Jersey, and I had to learn to talk more slowly, didn't I? I didn't think I would ever come to need a sweater or jacket during the winter months, but like a native Floridian, I now have some jackets and long sleeve plaid shirts that show my solidarity with those who shiver at the colder months. But my collection of tropical shirts has grown!

We have been through a lot together. I've grown older and feel the pains of the "golden years" just like many of you. We've mourned together when loved ones have gone on before us or moved away, and I've mourned with many of you when you have lost dear family members. But we have held on together, and we continue to look to the Lord for our comfort and guidance.

We are not as great in numbers as we were when I arrived, but I believe that God has some plans for us. Together, if God wills, we will figure out those plans and be faithful in our service to our Great God.

Thank you for loving us and encouraging us. I look forward to seeing what God will continue to do through us.
